Description

Large Louis XIII style armchair, "sheep bone" in walnut. It has been used, but it is in excellent condition.

The velvet fabric, brick / orange color is a little worn but still in very good condition, without holes or tears.

The upholstery of the back and seat (straps, padding ...) is very healthy, firm and comfortable. These seats have a slightly "stiff" appearance, but over time, you sit very comfortably, and you can "extract" yourself from them without effort thanks to the solid armrests ...

The whole is healthy and very stable, without fragility in the wooden structure.

Height at the back 116 cm, at the seat 46 cm, width 68 cm, depth 68 cm.
