Description

Very beautiful and very rare 17th century solid walnut sideboard with two recesses. The lower part rests on four ball feet topped with a beautiful molding. It opens on the front with two doors and two drawers in the belt, which are surrounded by three small consoles each decorated with an acanthus leaf. The upper part is very interesting and unusual. Indeed, it opens on the front with three drawers and a door. This one has the particularity of being central and surrounded by two panels forming a reserve, themselves contained between fluted pilasters with Corinthian capitals. The three drawers are located just below these elements and follow the same alignment. They are also framed by small flat columns. The whole is topped with a molding forming a cornice. The side panels of our piece of
