Description

Mahogany veneer chest of drawers with three identical drawers that can be pulled using rings with a lion's muzzle. The drawers slide perfectly. They have an intermediate crosspiece and an oak base. In the center, each drawer has an original lock and key. The uprights of this piece of furniture form pilasters with a bronze capital at the top and a bronze with a groove at the bottom. A slight protruding plinth is present at the level of the pilasters. At the front, this chest of drawers rests on two blackened wooden claw feet and two turned feet at the back. This piece of furniture is topped with a marble of Belgian granite origin. The back and frame of this chest of drawers are in oak.  Period: Early 19th century Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Waxed finish on a hard base. Additional photos
