Description

Napoleon III piece of furniture in marquetry and veneer of amboyna burl and rosewood. This piece of furniture has a central part with a projection with a door whose frame is in amboyna burl veneer. The interior part of the frame has a bronze molding in quarter-arch in the corners. A background inlaid with rosewood diamonds surrounds a black oval background highlighting a plant composition in light and stained wood representing birds, musical instruments and arrows, surrounded by flowers and foliage. This door has a high and low lock in working order, and an original bronze entry and key. The interior of this piece of furniture is in mahogany. We find adjustable shelves on racks. This piece of furniture benefits from rich bronze ornamentation. The upper part of the piece of
