

Alfred Decaen (1820-1902), Oil On Cardboard, Portrait Of A Poodle With Red Bows, 19th

Description

Charming painting depicting a poodle adorned with two red bows, one on top of its head and the other around its leg. The dog's expression is endearing, capturing a gentleness and elegance characteristic of the pets painted by Alfred Decaen, a 19th-century artist known for his animal portraits. The artist's signature is visible at the bottom left of the work, while an inscription "Frou Frou" appears at the top right of the painting, no doubt referring to the dog's name.
