Description

Magnificent and imposing English wing chair in tufted green leather resting on four arched wooden legs. This Chesterfield chair is a very beautiful English work. English antiques are of a sure taste and of a very good quality. The significant height of the back of this vintage designer leather chair as well as its wings offer real comfort for resting, reading and allow an ideal position of the head, back and neck. The chair has a very comfortable 10 cm removable cushion. The patinated leather gives the chair an antique touch of Victorian style. The leather shows signs of use, scratches. This wonderful comfortable and elegant chair fits perfectly into a contemporary decoration as well as a classic, traditional decoration. The Chesterfield is a very elegant and refined chair that was found in all the
