Description

Beautiful and rare wedding glass "Pinson et muguet" by Daum. All the charm of an era with this wedding glass that was offered to guests. In the purest art-deco style, the glass is decorated with a blue enameled finch resting on branches with berries. On the other side of the piece, thin branches of lilies of the valley are engraved on the wheel, which is rare at Daum. We also find the monogram of the bride and groom, as well as the date of the wedding (August 20, 1927). Very beautiful quality and various techniques used. Also note the so-called "comb" gilding of the neck and the blue glass base. It is of course a luxury gift for wealthy families, not very common. 12 cm high, perfect condition, signed in gold under the base (see photo). Very beautiful collector's item, rare.
