Description

Large tray for the tea ceremony in carved wood. In the shape of the fruit of Buddha's hand with a frog and a snail, it takes up the traditional theme of kachô (vegetable and animal).

The back is also very finely carved in a realistic way.

The artist Koseki signed on the stem.

Some traces of wear related to tea ceremonies.

Japan, Taisho era circa 1910, 53.5 x 30 cm.
