Description

Description /

Gilded, shiny and matte bronze, marble.

These beautiful candelabras consist of a round and conical base with three lion feet.

This base is decorated with openwork consoles carrying garlands of fruit.

A very discreet particularity of elegance: finely openwork reserves stand out on a marble or alabaster background included in the base.

The Athenian shaft carries a very chiseled ball of friezes, and the three feet are also openwork with pearls. A twist carries the arms of lights in very striking plant volutes of this style. The central socket emerges from a sunflower flower.

The photos "explain" as best as possible the richness of the decorative details of these lights served by a very elegant quality of chiseling and
