Description

Beautiful centerpiece made entirely of solid silver, of fine Florentine workmanship, marked with the "800" brand which confirms its quality. Dating from the late 19th-early 20th century, this centerpiece stands out for its oval shape and its handles beautifully decorated with phytomorphic motifs. The base and rim of the object feature an enchanting wavy pattern, which gives a touch of great overall elegance. Furthermore, there are delicate leaves adorning the object, which add more refinement. This precious object represents a testimony to the mastery of the silversmiths of that era and constitutes an incomparable decoration for any table or sideboard.
