

Japanese Katana Sword, Blade Mounted In Shirasaya - 15th Century.

6 200 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 115 cm.

Width : 8 cm.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1422189-japanese-katana-sword-blade-mounted-in-shirasaya-15th-century.html>

Description

Japanese Katana sword, the blade mounted in shirasaya, unsigned, attributed to Osafune Tsuneie. Tsuka braided in brown silk on white shagreen. Menukis depicting a chillong. Tsuba marugata in wrought iron and openwork depicting a bird in flight and plants (wear). Fushi and kashira with a motif of a bird in flight above the foaming waves on a nanako background and foliage scrolls (wear). Brown lacquered saya. Straight blade, regular, straight and marked hamon. Dimensions: 115 x 8 x 8 cm. Length of the blade edge: 77 cm. Sold with the support and its silk case for transport. Certificate guaranteeing the authenticity of the blade delivered with the sword.

Dealer

ANTIQUES YF

Arts du samurai et Arts du Japon

Mobile : 0608649576

4 allée de pomone

Gressy 77410