Description

We offer you this splendid two Italian oil paintings on plywood board dating back to the first half of the 20th century. Two fantastic mountain landscapes signed lower right Giancarlo Colombo, the paintings are not accompanied by a certificate of attribution.

Characterized by a good artistic quality, the brush stroke is material and a good perspective effect is highlighted. Both landscapes are certainly depicted during the summer season due to the presence of green valleys with villages in the foreground and the high mountains with little snow in the background.

The two paintings are accompanied by a lacquered wooden frame. They are perfect for
