Description

Beautiful powder flask, made in a hollowed-out coconut, and entirely carved. It is decorated with three medallions, decorated with a ship, and military allegories, weapons on one side, and flags with battalion number. Carved with a fantastic animal, the mouth serving as a pouring spout. A cork stopper remained inside, I was unable to remove it.

Excellent condition, no break or flaw, even few wear..

Work called convict or marine dating from the beginning of the 19th century, Circa 1820-1840.

Dimensions: 11cm x 8cm
