Description

Large and beautiful Russian bronze travel triptych in blue and white enameled, dating from the second half of the 18th century -- circa 1780/1800. It consists of three folding panels. This type of iconographic subject is called Deisis or Intercession. In the center, we find the "Almighty" Christ, flanked on the left by the Virgin and on the right by Saint John-the-Baptist. Mary and Saint John, heads bowed in prayer, are both interceding with Christ to save humanity. Very good general condition with a superb patina and characters having preserved all their details. Some chips in the enamel. This icon is sold with its certificate of authenticity and a complete description of the work. Dimensions of the open triptych: (L) 41 cm by (H) 16 cm. Dimensions of the closed triptych: (L) 15 by (H) 16 cm
