Description

Squirrels have the unfortunate tendency to forget where they have hidden their treasures. This one has taken precautions. Immortalized in bronze, the pine cone that it holds between its paws contains a loot that it will never lose! As for you, you can put your tobacco, keys or jewelry in it.

This animal bronze is signed Jules Moigniez, famous French animal sculptor, who exhibited at the Universal Exhibition of 1855 - which awarded him an honorable mention - and at the Salon of 1859. This decorative bronze sculpture is in perfect condition.
