Description

We are pleased to present this stunning and eye-catching mirror, featuring a wooden frame crafted in the second half of the 20th century. The elegant frame is adorned with lacquer in rich shades of dark green, beautifully complemented by charming painted floral decorations. Its wavy lines, curls, and scrolls draw inspiration from the exquisite designs of the Venetian Baroque period, making it a striking addition to any space.

This mirror is versatile and can find its perfect place in both classic and rustic settings, adding a vibrant pop of color and a touch of sophistication to your walls. Please note that there are some imperfections in the lacquer due to the passage of time, and the mirror itself has some lines and stains. We encourage you to carefully examine all
