Description

Pretty decorative oval dish with a scalloped outline representing a Breton woman on a terrace between two shingles. The wing of our dish is decorated with a pretty decoration made with a touch and represents a garland of stylized foliage. The outline is embellished with a blue border. The inscription HR Quimper is inscribed in the decoration under the terrace, and on the back of the dish. This brand was used by the Henriot factory for the period from 1904 to 1922. Shipping and protection costs 15 euros in metropolitan France, other destinations contact us.
