

Polished Iron Wax Case, Louis XIV Period, Two Seals, Coat Of Arms And Initials

240 EUR

Signature : Nuremberg

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 1,8cm

Height : 8,5cm

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1437559-polished-iron-wax-case-louis-xiv-period-two-seals-coat-of-arms-and-initials.html>

Description

Wax stick case, very simple, cylindrical, opening 2/3 by a screw thread, each end engraved of a seal: in a circle: Initials nicely intertwined (Mavelot secret); in an octagon: Crowned noble coat of arms, framed by soft scrolls.

8.5cm x 1.8cm.

Indestructible wrought iron object, work of a workshop in Nuremberg or Augsburg, whose specialty it was, period of Louis XIV, circa 1700.

This object is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal.

- eclectic - antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate are attached to each of our shipments.

Dealer

Eclecticnimes

Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,

Tel : +33665241111

Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127