Description

Iron gate, forged at the beginning of the 20th century, Louis XV style, topped with a set of volutes, with twisted bars on which inverted volutes are stapled. Its sheet metal bases are decorated with a frame loaded with florets in its corners and a rosette in its center. Some losses are to be noted on the latter. Its sheets are in good condition and do not need to be changed. Its valet and its reproduced toads are offered to you. The height in the center is 270 cm for 224 cm per side. The height at the axis of the upper hinges is 179 cm. The section of the uprights is 30 mm². You can visit our site: www.claudeaugustin.com
