Description

Here is a curious box, a real little cabinet of curiosities! In a large glass cylinder sealed at its ends by wax seals bearing the motto "praised be Jesus Christ, the Lord - Sacrament", are three ex-ossibus relics, of Saint Concord, that of a holy confessor and a last one of Saint Conrad.

The seal showing a monstrance could be that of the Order of Perpetual Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament. Affixed to the inside of the lid, the second class relics, ex indumentis principally, concern the Venerable Mother Marie de Sales Chappuis, monastery of the Visitation Sainte-Marie in Troyes, Mother Marie de Jésus du Bourg, foundress of the Sisters of the Savior and the Holy Virgin, and finally Saint Marie Alacoque, Visitandine figure.

There is also a little earth from the catacombs.
