

Antique Silver Plated Wmf Art Nouveau Jugendstil Five-piece Tea And Coffee Set On Tray

1 200 EUR

Signature : WMF

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Description

Superb early 20th century WMF / Geislingen coffee and tea set with tray, variation of model no. 150, circa 1905. Silver plated metal, comprising: coffee pot, tea pot, milk jug, sugar bowl with cover and a large twin-handled tray.

Each piece decorated in shallow relief with stylised floral moulded design and trailing ivy leaves and berries. The corners of the tray are fashioned in the form of large flower bulbs.

Literature:

"Art Nouveau Domestic Metalwork from Württembergische Metallwarenfabrik, English Catalogue 1906 with introduction by Graham Dry"

Antique Collectors' Club, 1990, p. 217 (similar

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

form illustrated)

Made by WMF (Württembergische Metallwarenfabrik) / Geislingen, Germany, c.
1905

Model variation of No 105

1944 g

Tray - 1.5 cm tall, 41 x 24 cm overall, 27 x 19 cm serving area

Teapot - 16 cm tall, 16 cm spout to handle, 11 cm across the widest point

Coffeepot - 19 cm tall, 16 cm spout to handle, 10
cm across the widest point

Sugar bowl - 10 cm tall to lid, 7 cm tall to rim, 13 cm across the handles, 9 cm across the widest point

Milk jug - 8 cm tall, 10 cm spout to handle, 7.5
cm across the widest point

Condition

Excellent antique condition overall. Some light wear to silvering and scuffing appropriate to age and use; some "bubbling" to silvering on coffeepot, teapot and creamer

Tray - tiny dings and scratches

Coffeepot - small dent to body near spout; shallow depression near base; some bubbling to silvering

Teapot - soldering to lid hinge; tiny nicks to silvering along the edge of the rim; hairline split to upper bone insulator; dark marks to base

Creamer - small dark mark inside