Description

Early Josiah Spode fine pearlware potpourri / scent jar hand-painted with a polychrome "Famille Rose" Chinoiserie design of peony flowers with ship borders. Large barrel-shaped body with two curving handles and a flat interior lid. The pearlware body has wonderful over-glaze enamel colours of reddish-pink, orange, blue and green. The design is outlined, then coloured in by an enameller.

Made by Spode, England, c. 1820's.

Black printed "SPODE" mark to base, pattern 3184 - "Famille Rose" or "Peony pattern with ship border".

The border is known as "ship". The name "ship"
