Painter's sketch related to his large painting "A Friday at the Salon of French Artists" kept at the Museum of Fine Arts in Rouen

The high point of Grün's painted work is the commission received in 1909 from the Under-Secretary of State for Fine Arts, Étienne Dujardin-Baumetz, to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Salon of French Artists in 1911. The audacity of the broad composition and the virtuosity of the brushwork in the painting A Friday at the Salon of French Artists restore much more than the vanity of a social opening evening
