Description

Rectangular table in walnut and wrought iron; its top, monoxyle, rests on four scalloped legs forming a trestle, connected to the top by two S in wrought iron; the table, which can be dismantled, is assembled with screws and nuts. A crosspiece, between the legs, was previously redone and a small graft made to one end of the leg. Pretty and elegant table with a thin top and a very beautiful patina. Italy. Seventeenth century.
