Description

Albert-Bernard-Félix RICHARD

Head of a woman

Around 1930

Marble H. 42 cm

Signed: Alb Richard

Born in Paris, a student of Jules Coutan and Charles Victor Peter at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Albert Richard exhibited regularly at the Salon in the 20s and 30s. It is worth noting that one of the teachers, Peter, had worked with Rodin. In sculpture, form is nearly everything, the material secondary, but it must be said that in this case it is a very beautiful piece of marble.
