Description

In 4 format, speckled calf, ribbed spine decorated with irons in the boxes, dark green morocco title, marbled endpapers. Two-tone title. "Essays on Man" by Mr. Alexandre Pope, French translation in prose by Mr. S New Edition, with the original in English; decorated with intaglio figures. In Lausanne, at Marc Chapuis 1762.

Beautiful copy with a beautiful frontispiece portrait of Charles Frédéric de JF Guillibaud, engraved by Will, a vignette on the title of the portrait of the Author painted by Kneller and engraved by Will in 1745. Five vignettes in a headband and a tailpiece, magnificently illustrated in the purest baroque style, notably the frames of the figures (we are under the Reign of Louis XV). This text had a resounding success in the 18th century with this approach to nascent
