Description

This small Louis XV chest of drawers would be very plain without this originality that makes all its charm. On each side of its slightly curved front opening with four drawers on three rows, two protruding uprights are decorated with gilded bronze corner falls. These pinched sides stretch the piece of furniture without overloading it, thus offering a lot of lightness in the Louis XV style.

The sober and classic marquetry plays with rosewood and violet wood, thus varying the play of light. This Louis XV chest of drawers is in perfect condition.
