Description

According to Jules Leleu: Rare corner sideboard in light wood from the Art Deco period circa 1930. Opening on the front with 2 doors The decoration is made of marquetry in the form of diamonds. The feet are conical in shape with gilded bronze soles. Has a shelf on the left side The marquetry is present on all sides of the piece of furniture and in this way it can be used as an extension of a sofa or as a separation of a room to be waxed H70x113x33
