Description

Very decorative and of very good quality, from the Napoleon III period around 1860, in the Louis XV style. Gilded bronze architecture in the form of a movement with rich foliage decorations decorated with Limoges porcelain with painted decoration of landscapes, a musical instrument and a romantic scene. The dial is also in porcelain decorated in the center with a crown of flowers, protected by glass. Fish head base.

Original mechanism without modification, ringing of the hours and half hours on an old bell.
