

19th Century Italian Empire Beaded Crystal Chandelier Six Light Brass And Iron Structure

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Crystal

Diameter : cm. 90

Height : cm. 120

Description

A stunning Empire Crystal Chandelier of Italian origin, coming from a Tuscan private palazzo in Florence dating back to the early 19th century. Repoussé brass, iron and crystal are the materials of this large circular, drop shaped Italian chandelier of Empire taste.

The hand-made circular structure consists of three circular brass crowns decorated with embossed ovals and beads borders. The brass rings are joined together by crystal chains and pendants.

The upper and larger crown are decorated with metal leaves and repousse medallions, whereas the larger ring support six curved iron arms.

Good condition, wear consistent with age and use. Rewired for European standards.

This super masterpiece of art, born for candles lighting at the beginning of 1800, thanks to its

Dealer

Antiquités Ghilli

Lighting, Paintings, Furniture, Sculptures

Tel : +39 0270635993

Mobile : +39 339 4379271

Fax : +39 02 84540237

Via A. M. Ampere 55

Milano 20131

evergreen and classical design, can be placed in contemporary luxury interiors.

Height of 120 centimeters does not include any chain, size relative to chandelier's structure only.

Shipping information: for a safe packaging, item must be folded with paper first, than rolled with plastic bubble wrap, hanged on a hook within a tailor-made fumigated wooden crate full of packing peanuts, chips.