Description

Seize the opportunity to acquire the second of two exceptional pairs (the first being for sale on this site) (4 panels for two windows) of castle hangings, a true testimony to the refinement and luxury of the Second Empire. This textile treasure, dating from the 19th century, embodies the decorative art of an era marked by a pronounced taste for exotic decors and distant influences. The patterns, inspired by the famous Indian fabrics, are richly decorated with exotic birds, delicate branches and flowers, bringing a breath of adventure and sophistication to your interior.

These hangings are distinguished by their quality and their imposing dimensions, which will magnify any large room or castle hall. In addition, they are accompanied by their original
