Description

Interior padded in impeccable red silk, this inclined model opens from the front allowing you to hang a pocket watch or a reliquary on its hook fixed to the bottom, you can also place a small object, whatever it is, this golden box with its chamfered glasses will superbly highlight the object in question. Note, a slight scratch inside on the glass on the right, we can see it well in the high definition photo but to the naked eye it is really not too noticeable.
