Description

Large 19th century crystal chandelier, on a central bronze ball, it has 6 light arms carrying cups decorated with crystals. The upper floors carry crystal pendants and rows of octagons. At the very top, it is decorated with 6 large crystal stars. The central shaft is dressed with molded glass threads. It is finished at the bottom by a crystal ball decorated with multiple round facets on the wheel.

The frame is in gold-colored bronze and has been cleaned and protected with a metal varnish in our workshops. The electrification has been redone, the electrical wires are external to the light arms.

Superb condition, very bright model equipped with "wind" LEDs (provided).
