

---

German Animated Automaton Gilt Cage With Singing Bird 1920s By Karls Griesbaum

1 500 EUR

Signature : Karl Griesbaum (1872-1941)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Diameter : 16,3

Height : 28.5

Description

Antique Singing Bird Cage a German Karl Griesbaum gilt brass model dating back to 1920's circa in good age related condition. This German Wunderkammer curiosity is an animated automaton: the bird sings loud and clear, moving its head, beak and tail.

Working authentic and original movement, marked on the bottom with a K G initials and a bird engraved, the logo of the firm Griesbaum founded in 1905 in Germany, in the Black Forest, in Triberg, Baden-Wurttemberg, by Karl Griesbaum (1872-1941). He is the son of the famous clockmaker Mathias Griesbaum.

The cage of this singing bird cage is made of gilt brass, gilding and feathering show signs of wear consistent with use and age, but is still in beautiful condition and most important, the music

Dealer

Antiquités Ghilli

Lighting, Paintings, Furniture, Sculptures

Tel : +39 0270635993

Mobile : +39 339 4379271

Fax : +39 02 84540237

Via A. M. Ampere 55

Milano 20131

box is in good working condition.

Period: 1920 circa

Height: 28.5 cm

Diameter: 16,3 cm