Description

Elegant pair of stools in solid walnut, characterized by a smooth top and turned legs, typical of the Tuscan style of the late 17th century, which give them a touch of refinement. Originally conceived as a fratina, these stools also lend themselves magnificently as side tables thanks to their size and height. Their simplicity and practicality, combined with their elegance and the recall of an ancient atmosphere, make them ideal for enriching any environment with style. Tuscan manufacture from the end of the 17th century, in the Louis XIV period.

Measurements: H x W x D 45 x 61 x 41cm
