Description

Paper fan where the mount is in bone or in ivory, applied with gold and silver leaf. In front (Moses) it is in good condition on the back a kind of transparent paper has been glued. It dates from around 1840-1850.

It is a chromolithographed sheet enhanced with gouache.

On one side we see Moses saved from the waters with a group of women surrounded by flowers and lush vegetation.

On the other side we see the city of Amsterdam with boats in the foreground.

Nice fan with many refined details.
