Description

Mahogany nesting tables from the mid-20th century.

They are made up of three tables.

They rest on four sheathed legs ending in a saber.

The tops are made of glass.

Each table is surrounded by brass rods.

Brass marquetry threads on the top, belts, feet and crosspieces in perfect condition.

Please note: Restored in our workshop, the glass tops have been changed, all the tables have been dismantled and glued back together, the mahogany and brass threads cleaned and patinated.

They are in perfect condition, stable and they slide perfectly between them.

Dimensions:

-The largest table: Height: 71 cm / Top: Width 55
