Description

Directoire Bench - Two large seats Period: Directoire (late 18th - early 19th century) Structure: Carved and patinated wood, sheathed legs typical of the Directoire style Fabric: o Seat and back: Red Toile de Jouy, Beautiran factory (Bordeaux), 18th century o Back: Red and white gingham fabric Details: o Brass studded trim around the back o Classic patterns representing mythological and bucolic scenes o Stable and elegant structure, typical of the clean lines of the Directoire style This bench harmoniously combines the elegance of the Directoire style with an exceptional fabric from the Beautiran factory, famous for its refined canvases and sought after by lovers of textile antiques. It has a beautiful patina that adds to its authenticity and charm.
