Description

Witness to the craze for the Gothic style at the end of the 19th century, this medieval-shaped domed lady's chest is marked "France". It is made of wood, lined on the inside and garnished on the outside with embossed copper decorated with rich relief decorations. Birds, foliage, fruits, algorithms and friezes... But it is the face of the grotesque on the lid that made me fall in love. Although equipped with its small key, the lock will not keep the lady's secrets for long...
