Description

Bracelet in 925/000 silver vermeil, crab hallmark and natural material. The end has feline heads, two panthers face each other with open mouths. Beautiful finesse in the pattern and physical details of the animals (eyes, teeth and fur). The articulation of the bracelet is done at its base thanks to a concealed spring under the ring also in vermeil and also hallmarked with the crab. The patina is old, some very small cracks or curls in the material are visible in the photos. Beautiful French creation, Art Deco period, a unfortunately illegible goldsmith's hallmark is present.
