Description

GEORGES PONSART, 33cm yellow modernist vase without neck, large fire salted stoneware, Bouffioulx ca 1950.

Perfect condition.

Georges Ponsart (1857 - 1937) was a potter and turner in Bouffioulx, Belgium. He worked for Gustave Crame, Fernand Dubois and Gustave Dubois until 1957. He produced an impressive series of artistic stoneware.

Not much is known about him, but some of his work is superb and he mastered the use of yellow pigment, which was often difficult to obtain at the time.
