Description

Daybed by René Martin, known as René les Ciseaux, a master cabinetmaker who collaborated with Charlotte Perriand on the design of the Les Arcs ski resort.

The structure, crafted from solid pine with a golden and dark stain, cleverly conceals three storage drawers with recessed handles. The mattress and cushions have been meticulously reupholstered in a fabric from Nobilis, offering a perfect blend of comfort and elegance.

Seat height : 15,75 inches

Provenance: Les Arcs 1600.

Three benches are available.
