gracefully folded on one side of her horse in a harmonious pleat of fabric. Her bearing is noble, her posture slightly inclined forward to help the horse in its jump. An expression of calm or concentration can be read on the finely sculpted face of the Amazon. The horse, meanwhile, is captured in a spectacular movement, its muscles tense and hooves thrown forward to cross the hedge with power. The medal-winning patina accentuates the contrasts and details of the bronze, giving the whole a depth and visual richness. The combination of soft lines and energetic shapes conveys a balance between the grace of the rider and the strength of the horse, creating a captivating and timeless work.
