Description

Silver hand candlestick, Louis XVI period.

The circular tray with contours rests on a base.

The handle attachment is decorated with channels ending in a plain molding.

Hallmarks under the tray: charge and jurande and in the socket: charge, jurande and goldsmith. It is of a good weight and in perfect condition.

A silver piece has been applied at the junction between the handle and the tray to consolidate.

BORDEAUX, 1777.

MO: Antoine DUTEMPLE. It was received in 1768.

Weight: 250gr. Beautiful molding.
