Description

This large painting found at the back of a workshop has never been exhibited, it is still rolled up. It is certainly a request for decoration for a theater or a large restaurant as was often done in France after the war. The whole is very bucolic, neo-romantic with a very beautiful pictorial touch. It could easily be cut into a triptych or presented as such. The canvas shows signs of folding. The painting is nevertheless in a very good state of conservation. I would also present in another advertisement another one of more than 8 meters.
