exceptional quality of this cabinet, making it a one-of-a-kind piece:

- o Two elegantly crafted doors open to a spacious interior, equipped with two adjustable wooden rack shelves, perfect for storing your treasures.
- o "Pistol" feet, typical of the Louis-Philippe style, lend the cabinet a light and graceful silhouette.
- o A solid walnut top offers the ideal surface for displaying your favorite decorative items or a fresh bouquet of flowers.
- o A working lock with its original key, demonstrating the meticulous attention to detail and providing a rare practicality for a piece of this era.
- o Traditional mortise-and-tenon construction, a true mark of robustness and artisanal craftsmanship, ensuring unparalleled durability.
- o A solid wood back panel, carefully finished to maintain the impeccable quality, even in parts usually less visible.
- o Softly beveled edges that add a discreet touch of elegance, harmonizing the cabinet's lines with subtlety.

This cabinet was lovingly preserved in the billiard room of a countryside home nestled in the heart of the Loire Valley. Owned by a university professor, it housed games of wit such as chessboards, checkers, backgammon, and playing cards--testaments to shared moments among friends in a warm and elegant setting.

The harmonious proportions of this cabinet, combined with its compact depth, make it a perfect piece for a welcoming entryway, a refined living room, or even a library full of character. Its natural patina and clean lines allow it to fit seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors.

This is not just a cabinet but a piece of history embodying the elegance of a bygone era while meeting your everyday needs and transforming your home into a place filled with poetry and authenticity.

Treat yourself to a slice of heritage, a story to tell,
and a unique piece that will turn your house into a true haven of refinement.
