Description

Norman dresser from the beginning of the 19th century in natural oak. The upper part opens with two glass doors, has a gendarme's hat, the crosspiece is decorated with a basket of flowers and fruits, branches also in bloom and hearts. There are two shelves... the lower body opens with two doors sculpted with flowers and foliage, rounded and fluted front upright ending with a curved Louis XV foot, a shelf... Furniture narrowed in depth, but the bottoms are original!
