Description

Japan, early Edo period (1603-1868), rare and very old statue of the Shinto god depicted standing, in formal attire, arms in prayer posture. This superb sculpture is in good condition except for the eroded wood and some losses due to abrasions, repeated friction. Presence of traces of soot due to candles formerly located around the statue.

Height 21 cm The scale witness on the last photograph is a small model of a lighter of a brand known to all.
