Description

Louis XVI Style Floor Lamp In porcelain and gilded bronze ornamentation. Circa 1880. H 194 cm

The porcelains are signed by George Émile Poitevin in the decoration of the medallions and also bear apocryphal signatures of the Manufacture de Sèvres certainly made by Samson including the initials of BB framed by the intertwined L's all surmounting an S. The two scenes represented are inspired by the muses playing with Amour by François Boucher. The shape of the vase is close to the rare Sèvres model "vase du roi" or "vase du roi garland" celebrating the accession to the throne of Louis XVI. The pleated silk lampshade highlighted with a ribbon embroidered in blue and gold tops the vase decorated by Poitevin whose oil lamp has been
