Description

Pair of white marble planters

Period: 1700

Dimensions: 76 cm in length, 47 cm in width, 45 cm in height

Provenance: Venice

Description: Elegant pair of white marble planters dating back to the 18th century. These refined pieces stand out for their harmonious design, characterized by a double curve on the sides, a typical feature of Venetian style from the period.

The planters exhibit clean lines and balanced proportions, making them ideal for enhancing gardens, terraces, or interior spaces. Thanks to their solid structure and well-preserved finish, they can also be used as elements for a decorative fountain, adding a touch of history and beauty to any setting.
